CHANG-LIN TIEN LEADERSHIP IN EDUCATION AWARD CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Chang-Lin Tien Leadership in Education Award recognizes Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (AAPIs) who have achieved significant academic accomplishments and demonstrate the potential to advance to the highest leadership levels in higher education or has shown the capacity to grow and move from a high-level position. The recipient will receive a $10,000 grant to establish a Chang-Lin Tien Scholarship Fund for AAPI students at their institution. Nominations are due March 3, 2023. Selection of the award recipient will be made by May 26, 2023.

Nomination Criteria:

- Asian American or Pacific Islander working in a U.S. higher education institution
- Currently associated with a four-year public or private college or university
- Appointed at the level of dean or a position of comparable—or higher—responsibility. Preference is given to candidates who do not currently hold a chief executive position (i.e., chancellor, president, provost or comparable level).
- Demonstrates potential for future career advancement
- Demonstrates outstanding leadership potential and scholarly achievement

Background: The award honors the legacy of Chang-Lin Tien, a founding board member of the Asian Pacific Fund and the first AAPI to head a major American research university as chancellor of UC Berkeley from 1990 to 1997. This endowed and permanent program is the only one of its kind in the nation. Recent award recipients¹ include (Full List: <https://bit.ly/CLTRecipients>):

- Geeta Anand, Dean of the Graduate School of Journalism, UC Berkeley
- Ka Yee C. Lee, Provost, University of Chicago
- Tsu-Jae King Liu, Dean of the College of Engineering, UC Berkeley
- Mun Y. Choi, President, University of Missouri System
- Jerry Kang, Vice Chancellor for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, UCLA
